

News Release

Fort Madison. Lee County Auditor Anne Pedersen announces that due to recent events, results of the December 6, 2011 Keokuk City Run-off Election will not be posted on the County's website until the results tape from the precinct counters are returned later that night to the South Lee County Courthouse by the precinct officials. The tapes from the precinct counters will enable the results to be reported more accurately. The County's website address is www.leecounty.org. Anyone having questions can call the Auditor's Office at 319-372-3705.
